Ari@gullsil.com

Ari Erickson, a fourth generation Nevadan, served in the Navy as a nuclear reactor operator on CVN -74 and CVN-77. For the past few years he has been a member of the Diamond Valley Ground Water Management Plan Advisory Board. He has also been serving on the Eureka County Natural Resources Advisory Committee as the appointed mining representative. He currently resides in Diamond Valley, on a farm raising goats with his lovely wife Alisha and their three boys (with one more on the way). He is employed as Director of Operations, Gullsil-Prospect Mountain in Eureka Nevada.

Mr. Erickson also participated in the investigation performed on the property encompassing the Diamond Mine and the area involved in the submission of the three proofs of vested rights put forth for Solarljøs by SRK, and Mr. Erickson has personal knowledge of the property, the maps, and the locations of the sites described in the SRK report and the information contained therein.

Barbi Malinky Harmon, M.A., RPA

Director

Kautz Environmental Consultants, Inc.

malinky@keenv.com

Ms. Harmon is a professional archaeologist permitted by the Nevada State Office of the BLM and the State of Nevada to conduct prehistoric and historic archaeological investigations on public lands in the State of Nevada. Additionally, Ms. Harmon is listed on the Register of Professional Archaeologists and meets the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for professional archaeologists. She received her Master's degree in Anthropology from the University of Nevada, Reno, in 2005, and has worked as a manager of cultural resource projects for Kautz Environmental Consultants since that time.

In 2015, Ms. Harmon was contracted by Gullsil to conduct cultural resource investigations for the proposed Prospect Mine project in Eureka County. The investigations serviced as the baseline data utilized by BLM to identify cultural resources eligible or potentially eligible for the National Register within the Prospect Mine area, and assess the effects of the project on those resources. The baseline studies identified 32 archaeological resources, five of which were recommended eligible for the National Register. The baseline study reports were accepted by the BLM and the Nevada State Historic Preservation Office in 2017.

Because of protocol requirements of BLM, the report is not released to Gullsil and is not generally made available to the applicant or outside sources until such time as BLM determines to make the information publicly available, in order to assure that there is no interference or disturbance of the areas identified as culturally significant; thus, it may be that at the time of this submission, the report prepared by Ms. Harmon will not be made available for public review, but Ms. Harmon will be available to testify to her findings and what was contained in the report.

Scott Campbell

Archaeologist/Crew Chief
